BLUES NEWS

Round 1 - Imperials vs Meningie - 1st April 2017

After what seems like a never-ending summer, we are finally ready to make up for the early finals exits of last year. It has been a summer of hard work for all involved at Imperial Football Club, with senior coach Shane Collins, Senior Assistant Paul Tanner and Reserves Coach Trevor Wise eagerly awaiting the opportunity to see the results of an arduous preseason. There will be a host of new faces across the day, so if you do see a new person around the club please say hello and introduce yourself. Having a welcoming environment to these new players, coaches and volunteers, will help build a strong club for the year. Today we host the Meningie Bears who will be hoping to pay us back for a finals loss last year. There is little doubt the senior games will be hotly contested and it will be good to see how the players can respond to some fierce competition. Look out in the league game for Ben Woolford who comes to us from the Surfers Paradise Demons Football Club in Queensland, but is previously from the Adelaide Hills. Ben will be adding some experience to a host of talented young players. Tonight, after the match the club will be open and the netballers will be serving teas after presentations. The club also welcomes a new bar manager in Grant Smith, so introduce yourself to him, then hang around for our Reverse Disco. The song list is compiled from the crowd with prizes for last song played. It is sure to be a great night. See you there and

JOKE OF THE WEEK

So there was once an 80's pop star that became a chef. One day he was cooking but was missing his secret ingredient!

What was he missing?

Hammer Thyme!!

NETBALL NEWS

Welcome everyone to the first round of the 2017 season for the River Murray Netball Association. Rachel Jaensch, Caitlin Koop, Zoe Michalik, Bremah Morrison

The Imperial Netball Club sends a warm welcome to all new players, parents, officials and supporters and welcomes back all previous club members.

The club welcomes Meningie to our home grounds this weekend where we are sure there will be some fierce competition.

We invite everyone to check out all of our goodies at our trading table where there is plenty of yummy homemade food on offer, we also have our barbecue shed up and running again this year with everyone's favourite chicken steak sandwiches and bacon and egg sandwiches.

As a new season begins, the next generation of netballers come through, we welcome Kira Barnett, Olivia Carr, Amelia DeMichele, Lara Franke, Yasmin Harrowfield, and Mia Williams to our Minis side and congratulate them on their first ever game of netball. Enjoy yourselves girls and do your best, try and put out the skills you have learned at training out on court.

We extend those best wishes to all of the new Minis players throughout the RMNA, it is a very exciting time and they are all very cute so make sure you get down to watch them at some point over the season if not today.

Many of the girls have been training for several weeks in preparation for the first game, we wish everyone playing today all the best. We encourage everyone to play hard and with respect for your coaches, team mates, opposition, umpires and officials.

Let's go you Blues.
