BLUES NEWS

Welcome everybody to another great day of Footy and Netball at the home of sport in the River Murray area.

Mypolonga visit us today and they will be hard to beat in all grades of both codes.

Congratulations to Ben Quast on playing his 150th League game last week at Mannum. A great achievement for a great bloke!

Last Saturday our two clubs combined to put on the Imperial 'Secret Garden' Ball. What an awesome night it was and a credit to all members of the Ball committee. A tough act to follow for our next combined effort, 'A Day at the Races.'

Our League team recorded it's fifth win in a row against Mannum last week and has now beaten every other team, except one - Mypolonga. We get that chance today and if we can produce the same focus, persistence and energy then a win is a real possibility.

A big test today for the Reserves side against the Tigers. Last time we played we suffered an humiliating defeat. Today is a chance to avenge that defeat and we are in good enough form to do just that!

Last week another set of brothers played their first match together in the double blue when Jack and Patrick Robinson took the field in the Reserves game. Both played very good games and combined with each other on numerous occasions to set up scoring opportunities. So in the words of Simon and Garfunkel, "Here's to you Margie Robinson, Imperials love you more than you will know, oh oh oh - oh oh oh!".

On that note GO THE BLUES!!

150 FOR QUASTY

Ben Quast played his 150th league game last Saturday against Mannum.

Scrupulously fair, Ben has been a rock down the back lines over the years. Bens experience is valued highly in a side that has many young and up and coming players. With a little bit different playing style this year and the flexibility that winning gives the selectors, don't be surprised if we see Ben play some different positions around the ground. Used down forward a couple years ago by coach Stevie Sumner, Ben was potent at times, kicking up to seven goals which demonstrates his flexibility and value to the group.

The club celebrate your milestone Ben, and wish you all the best for rest of the season.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

What is the fiercest flower in the garden?

A tiger lily!

COLTS CORNER

The Imperial Football Club will host the Murray Bridge Auskick Centre kids next Sunday 1/7/18 at Johnstone Park from 10.00am. All senior players and coaches are urged to come along and support the day, helping out where needed.

Netball News

This week we welcome Mypolonga to our home grounds for what is sure to be a day of quality netball.

Both Mypolonga and Imperials feature heavily at the top of the table throughout many of the grades with several games being played as 1st versus 2nd. This is the case in the B Grade and C Grade. Make sure you head over to the courts to support out Blue girls and catch some great games.

We are incredibly proud to announce that Zoey Roberts umpired her first A Grade game against Mannum last week. This is such a wonderful achievement, she did such a brilliant job and it is so pleasing to see our younger girls step up and pick up a whistle. We sincerely hope more young girls reach these kinds of achievements in the future as well. This is a credit to the club's umpiring program and the hard work of Bev Dalwood and Lucy Harkness.

We also had a wonderful night at the club last weekend for the major event of the year – the Imperial Secret Garden Ball. It was a fantastic night, congratulations goes out to the organising committee and all who helped. Our next major event is “A Day at the Races” so make sure you get along for some more fun.

Thank you to our sponsor of the week Notts Nursery who also assisted with decorations for the ball. Make sure you support the businesses that support us. Be sure to stick around the club tonight for a great meal put on by our netballers.

Let's go you Blues!
