BLUESNEWS

Round 12 - Imperials vs Mypolonga - 1st July 2017

The trip out to Jervios was so close to being a perfect day, having won all games before a hiccup in the league game. Unfortunately, the slow start kept us playing catch up all game and despite a 2nd quarter fight back, the boys fell short. Ryan Edwards and Phil Smith continued their good form, along with Ash Tunbridge who put in his best effort playing just his 2nd league game for the club.

Today we welcome the Mypolonga football club to Johnstone Park in our last match before 2 consecutive weeks off. This should ensure that all the players can leave nothing out on the field and provide us with some great games.

The reserves now sit at the top of the table, but last time these 2 teams met they split the premiership points so it will take another big effort today. Since that draw we haven't lost a game, and with mypo only losing 1, we are in for a great spectacle.

The weekend also saw us have yet another bout of injuries. Our thoughts go out to Mason Merritt and Nick Wright who both suffered broken bones. Hope to see you both back out as soon as you're healed.

Next weekend the club is hosting the SA Country Championships, held across Saturday and Sunday. It requires a lot of work from everyone around the club and we are still looking to fill canteen, BBQ and pancake tent volunteer spots. It would be greatly appreciated if you could spare a few hours of your weekend to give back to the club. Please see someone at the canteen or BBQ today if you can.

Go You Blues!

NETBALLNEWS

Once again it seems like forever since we have played at our home courts with almost a month between home games.

Today we welcome the Mypolonga Netball Club to our grounds and we look forward to a day of what is usually some high skilled, impressive and competitive netball.

If you haven't seen many netball matches this year, today is a great day to head over to the courts and watch some impressive matches.

Our club has been having some great success with most of the grades in good position for finals netball which really isn't too far away.

To continue the good work and improve on player's skills, the club's first Under 25 development session was held on Tuesday night with Helen Smith.

We thank Helen for her time and expertise and look forward to seeing some of what the girls learnt out on court today.

The Leahy Kneebone Cup is fast approaching and there are ribbons and pins available to purchase from the netball and football canteens today and on the day. They are priced at $5 each and profits from the sales will be donated to the Beyond Blue Organisation as mutually nominated by the families.

It will be almost a month before we hit the courts again on the 22nd of July so lets go out there and make the most of it today and get a few more wins on the board.

Let's go you Blues!

// HOME GAME TEAS //

This week the A Reserve girls will be serving Chicken, Salad and Chips and Nuggets and Chips. Dessert will be Apple and Apricot Pie. Stick around and support the club!
