BLUES NEWS

Round 17 - Imperials vs Ramblers - 12th August 2017

A cold and windy day last weekend only made losing that much worse for both senior teams, as Mypolonga took better advantage when kicking with the breeze. Matt Williams continued his standout season in the ruck, whilst our talented youth also stepped up with Nathan Daish, Jacob Rance, Ash Tunbridge and Sam DeMichele all having solid input.

This week we host our cross-town rivals in Ramblers, who we managed to beat at their home ground last round. The team will be fired up in front of a large crowd of premiership heroes of the past, with the club celebrating the 1957, 67 and 77 premierships. We experienced a lot of success in these years with both A and B grades winning in 57 and 67, whilst the A grade won in 77 along with the colt's team. We also welcome all our wonderful life members to share in what will be a special day for the club. The clubrooms will host this event over lunch at 12:30 before the attention turns to watching the rest of the reserves match, followed closely by the league game. I'm sure it will be a long day of catching up and reminiscing about our successful past.

Both senior teams will have their work cut out for them, with the roosters slightly above us in both grades. The reserves always seem to have a big game at the moment, and it is no different this week playing for top spot!

Around the club there is plenty happening with teas and drinks tonight, getting the current players mingling with champions of the past. Next weekend we have our "Day at the Races", for $20 entry you get a drinks card, and experience all the fun you would have on track. Dress up, drink champagne, own a horse or pick the quaddie, all in the comfort of the clubrooms.

Go You Blues!

NETBALL NEWS

The Blues are back on track with an uninterrupted run home to finals after an extremely messy past couple of months with more byes than games played.

After a solid day against Mypolonga last Saturday with many games being very close with only 1 and 2 goals in it, it was a great hit out and everyone will be firing and ready to take on Ramblers today.

With only 3 games left before finals, now is the time to dig deep and settle your games to ensure everyone is on the same page for finals.

Today will be another fantastic day of competitive netball against our cross town rivals so make sure you head across to the courts to show our Blues girls some support.

Now is the time of year that everyone needs to take extra care of their bodies and ensure you all recover well. There are a number of health and fitness professionals at the club who would be more than happy to provide their expertise.

Without a doubt this has been a year full of surprises with many of our netballers falling pregnant. The club extends our sincere congratulations to these players and there will be an exciting set of players in the future.

So far we extend congratulations to Leah Williams, Laura Berling, Crystal Williams, Alyce Clarke and Simone Cocks and their respective partners. Also from last year Sarah Stephenson and we congratulate Jess Borolo on the birth of her gorgeous girl Sophia. All the best to everyone today.

Let's go you Blues!!
