Football is back and we are under lights at Johnston Park. Imperials is keen to have you back for an exciting 2022 season. The boys have had a cracking preseason and are ready to launch into Mannum to start their 2022 campaign. Scott McMahon returns to the helm of the 1s with a new face to the club by his side in Alex Button. We are extremely happy to have Alex as apart of the coaching panel and cannot wait to see what impact he can have on the playing group. We have also been lucky to welcome a couple of gun recruits in Ben Gogel and Clint Diment to the club. After years of these two running amok against us it is great to see them running out in the double blue, we wish them all the best as they both find a new home with the Blues. The word on the track is that a few young guns in Aiden Morrell,

Daniel Girdham and Nathan Sorenson are flying, keep an eye out for them this season as they try to make their mark on the RMFL.

Tom Hines takes control of the 2s boys this year. Tom has plenty of knowledge and experience to share with the boys and it will be great to see what he can do with the group. Other teams of the league should be on watch as household names Mason Merrit, Jimmy Honnor and Ryan Edwards are all set to make their return this year, stay tuned. If that isn't enough to give you goosebumps, currently sitting on 968 goals, number 31 on the all time SA country Goalkicker list, Club Hero Brad Shiel is returning, he's registered and ready to kick bags.

Goodluck to all teams this year, Go You BLUESSSS!!!!

MITCH'S MUSING

Showdown day and footy at Johnstone
Park under lights. Wowee I'm excited.
Nearly as excited as Jack Laube is for a club function. The long awaited debut as club DJ can't be far away surely. I know he's had a big pre season mixing tracks so watch this space. Another who's had a big pre season is Gareth Williams. Earlier this week Adelaide man Daniel Scali fell just short of breaking the Guinness world record for most push-ups in an hour. He racked up 2919. I reckon Gaz (Williams) would give that a nudge with the size he's put on those arms. Go blues.

Netball News

Here we are at our first game of season 2022. We welcome the Mannum Roos to our courts for what we are sure will be a tightly contested day of netball.

It's already been a bit of a messy start to the season due to Covid so it's a great reminder to ensure that you're pitching in to help out where you can and also be kind to one another, we are all doing our best. Please also ensure you are using common sense surrounding Covid.

This year, the junior format is a little different, we now have Inter 1, 2 & 3 which combines the 17s and 15s age groups, Junior 1 & 2 which is the 13s age groups and Sub Junior 1, 2 & 3 which combines the 11s and minis age groups.

This is a very exciting change and we look forward to seeing how our juniors develop under these new changes.

Please note that there are several game time changes today, these are as follows:

9am: Inter 3 & SJ2

10.15: J2 & SJ3

11.30: Inter 1 & J1

12.45: A Res & C

2pm: B & A

Be sure to get over to the courts for some great netball today then head over to support out footballers for their twilight games.

Let's go you Blues!!!
