BLUES NEWS

Round 3 - Imperials vs Ramblers - 22nd April 2017

Today we host our cross-town rivals, Ramblers, in what promises to be an exciting day of football.

A disappointing trip to Mannum a fortnight ago would have made the Easter break that much longer for the Blues. The senior team was again gallant in defeat, leading most of the day before fading late with the lack of fit players on the bench showing. We wish James McLaren all the best as he recovers from a serious leg injury sustained in the first quarter last game. We had some good form from a few younger guys last week in Brayden Dalitz, Brad Lienert and Dylan Hollitt which gives us great faith in the future of the club.

Unfortunately, Trevor Wise's reserves faced a similar story, surrendering a lead to just go down. We have a few of our more experienced players, including Tom Hines and Sam Mobbs, travelling along nicely and I'm sure will be knocking down the door and keeping those A grade players honest.

We can now look forward to a solid block of games to get into the season proper and the challenges will continue to come. The players have been putting in the hard yards to ensure they are in tip top shape going forward and I'm told there's no better way to get off the mark than knocking off the Roosters on our home deck.

There will be presentations and dinners on in the clubrooms after the game, followed by a Junior Disco for all our future football and netball stars. Please hang around and support your club.

Go you Blues!

NETBALLNEWS

This week we welcome the Rambler Netball Club to our courts, traditionally our Murray Bridge rivals and today, we can expect good quality match ups across all grades.

Today the Imperial Netball Club celebrates several milestones, we send our biggest congratulations to these players that have achieved such great things and we are excited to be a part of it.

A grade co-vice captain Olivia Scholz will today play her 150th game, Liv has had many achievements during her time at the club including several Association Best and Fairest awards. She is a great goaler with amazing athleticism and an incredible leap, her versatility is incredible and she is an amazing asset.

Jo Grosser; our A Reserves vice captain is celebrating her 100th game. Jo is an incredible, zippy midcourt player who has some of the best vision and passes into the goal circle in the league, she is a quiet achiever and a great player to have on any team.

These are wonderful achievements and we congratulate both girls on their games.

Both girls have contributed so much to the club and are wonderful players, we encourage everyone to get out and watch these girls in action, you never know, you could learn a thing or two.

We expect to see some very close and tough battles out on the netball court today, it's a great week to wander over to the courts and catch some high standard netball in action.

People are encouraged to stick around after the action is over for the club's Junior Disco.

Meals will be available, cooked by our lovely A Reserve team, they are preparing a feast. For the adults, there will be steak with your choice of pepper, mushroom or plain gravy served with potato bake and side salad.

Most importantly, there will be nuggets and chips or hotdogs for the kids and of course, for dessert, there will be ice cream.

Lets go you Blues!
