Welcome to Johnstone Park for today's games against the Taillem Bend Eagles. We welcome the Eagles players and fans to Johnstone Park today.

Today is a special day as we celebrate the Anzac Day commemorative with round 4 clash. We also celebrate a fantastic achievement by one of the clubs finest players as Ash Temby today plays his 300th senior game for the Blues. What is even more remarkable in this feat is that Ash played more than 100 senior games for Mypolonga beforehand.

The senior side will be looking to bounce back from a disappointing game against Jervois and will be more than ready to get back into the winners column.

The Eagles will be no pushover though and have shown vast improvement this season. It promises to be a competitive afternoon of football.

The Reserves side will be aiming to continue its good early season form after producing a stunning last quarter come from behind victory against the Bluds.

Good luck to each of the Blues teams in both the football and netball today and play the game in a competitive, fierce but sportspersons like manner.

Go You Blues!!

THE GAME CHANGERS - THE SIXTY NINERS

Led by some astute and forward thinking senior club members and assisted by many True Blue Supporters the SIXTY NINERS changed Imperials forever.

Forfeiting countless leisure hours over the 65/66 off season they erected our clubrooms at Johnstone Park with hardly a Carpenter and Builder on site.

The rewards were fast in coming with Senior Grand Final appearances in 67, 68 and 69. A total of 6 Premierships, (2 A's, 3 B's and a Junior Colts) were achieved over these 3 years.

Netball News

Today we welcome Taillem Bend to play in the ANZAC Round.

We also personally welcome two River Murray Netball Association Life Members today; Lorraine Graetz from Imperials and Fiona Maddaford from Taillem Bend who together will select the recipient of the ANZAC Medal in the A Grade match.

It is an extremely special round and is an opportunity for us all to take the time to reflect on those who risked everything to have the life we have today, it is a time to give thanks and pay respects.

We sincerely hope everyone that steps out on the court can play with true ANZAC spirit showing the qualities of endurance, courage, ingenuity, good humour and mateship.

As with every week, we encourage everyone to be respectful of their team mates, coaches, support staff, umpires and opposition.

Let's all go out and enjoy the game we love with ANZAC spirit this week and every week.

It is now also a great time to thank all of our wonderful volunteers that work tirelessly to ensure a smooth start to the season, we are always needing help so if you are able to help your club in any way, it is always very much appreciated.

We have a number of social events to fund-raise for our club approaching with the Imperial Ball next weekend, there is still time to purchase your tickets so please see Jenna Daniels, James Clarke or Dylan Hollitt to secure yours for what is always a great night.

Stick around tonight for teas cooked by the A Reserve netballers with chicken mini roasts on the menu ahead of our Player Auction and Reverse Disco. It's an action packed night ahead so make sure you're there and don't miss out on all of the fun.

Let's go you Blues!!!
