BLUES NEWS

Round 9 - Imperials vs Mannum - 3rd June 2017

It's been a whole month without a match at Johnstone Park and we are all itching to see our boys return to the winners list. Our last home game was our last win, so it's time to make sure we get on a roll and make use of the familiar setting. We welcome the Mannum football club today, which presents a great day of matches. The 3 lead ups to the main game see teams who are situated very close on the ladder.

Without doubt it is our reserves who have been doing us proud week in week out. In a season that has the league squad constantly calling players up due to a mounting injury list, Trevor Wise has this group playing for the jumper and it is fantastic to watch. With great youngsters in Daniel Leahy, James Lipp, Josh Bell, Chad Ystma and Joe Cox complementing the senior players, the club's future looks very bright indeed. Keep an eye out for these boys over the next few weeks as you will see them around for a long time to come.

Today we celebrate ladies' day, before the players take over and host ladies night at the clubrooms. There are a lot of women at our club that do phenomenal work, so today these women can take the day off and enjoy themselves in a prime position in front of the clubrooms. From everyone on the committee along with all the club's members, our thanks go out to some remarkable Imperial people.

We are now selling tickets to the Imperial "Glitz and Glam" Ball on June 24th after the Rd 11 game V Jervois. See any netballer or footballer for tickets to what promises to be a great night. As always GO YOU BLUES!

NETBALL NEWS

This week the Blues are home again after having 5 weeks since the club's last home game and we are ready and rearing to take on Mannum.

The club had a successful week last week when we travelled to Meningie and we hope for another one this week.

There has been some exciting milestones celebrated over the past two weeks.

Against Taillem Bend, 15 and Under Division 2 player Maddison Bell celebrated her 100th game which is a great achievement, congratulations Madi.

Last weekend, against Meningie, 17 and Under player Jacinta Thompson also clocked up 100 games and celebrated in style with a good win.

That's not the end of the milestone celebrations, this week we have a huge number of them.

In the 13 and Under Division 1 match, Danielle Daish and Phoenix Rogers play their 100th games, congratulations Dani and Phoenix.

Also check out the 15 and Under Division 1 match today where two players are celebrating 100 games.

Congratulations to Carrissa Penhall and Mykayla Ward on your achievements.

17 and Under and C Grade player Chelsea Eldridge plays her 100th game today too, well done Chelsea.

A Reserve player Skye Cossich also celebrates her 100th game today. This is Skye's first year in seniors and we wish her all the best today.

Abbey Fiegert also celebrates 100 games today, congratulations. Abbey is the captain of the 17 and Under side, head out to watch these players and cheer them on in their big games today.

We are expecting some great netball out on court today so make sure you head over to the courts to have a look and witness some great skill and play.

Let's go you Blues.
