Its been a while since we last played at home and a lot has happened since then. A big well done to Ryan Farnham, Jacob Rance, James Clarke, Sam DeMichele and Luke Harrowfield who all represented the RMFL in a rep game over the past long weekend. Lately it has been a tough time in the league side with an increasingly long injury list mounting up for the club with many players going down over the past weeks, we wish all players a quick and painless recovery. A massive game today awaits both League sides who are fighting to get a hold of that 3rd spot on the ladder and hopefully get that second chance come finals time. Expect an hard and exciting game of footy with both sides having plenty to play for. Goodluck to all teams playing today! Go you Blues!!

Netball News

It's been quite a while since our last home game but we are finally back here and we welcome Mannum to our courts today. We are more than halfway through the season already and it has been so great to see how far our teams have come so far. Great work by our players, coaches, umpires and support staff so far this season.

Our club has had a huge focus on development this year and working toward our future and it has been an absolute pleasure to see some more of our players get their debuts in our highly competitive A Grade side. A huge congratulations to Dani Daish and Emily DeMichele for their debuts a couple of weeks back against Jervois – great achievement girls.

A huge congratulations to our Blue girls that represented the RMNA at Country Championships on the June long weekend, we are very proud of Georgia DeMichele, Olivia Eldridge and Mia Perriman who played in the 15&U Grade and finished 4th in Division 1 and we are incredibly proud and excited for Yasmin Harrowfield and Jemma Zadow who played in the 13&U Grade and won their Grand Final to finish 1st in Division 2. Congratulations girls! A huge thank you to Genna Harkness and Penny Fielke for umpiring over the weekend for Imperials and also a huge thank you to Lucy Harkness for umpiring over the weekend for Meningie. A huge thank you to Kim DeMichele for taking on the Country Champs coordinator role for Imperials as well as umpire coordinator. Thanks to all involved – this helps the girls get out there and play netball at a higher level and gain some great experience and friendships.

Today should see some great competitive games of netball with a top of the table clash in the A Reserves grade at 12.45pm with Mannum currently sitting top with Imperials second, the 17&U grade at 11.30am is another highly anticipated game in a 2nd (Blues) v 3rd (Roos) clash with the winner of the match looking to hold a top two spot on the ladder.

Be sure to head over to the courts throughout the day when you can to cheer on our Blue girls.

Tonight, stick around the club for teas – we have chicken mini roasts with potato bake and veggies on the menu. We are also having games night so bring along your favourite board/card games and have a relaxed night at the club, hope to see you there.

Let's go you Blues!!
